

Australian Garden History Society

2009 Autumn Tour

26th April – 2nd May

Led by Clive and Sarah Lucas and Lynne Walker

Armidale....Bundarra....Guyra....Glen Innes....Uralla.... Walcha.

Seven days (six nights) of private gardens and buildings, history, art, literature, people and landscapes.

Tour starts and finishes in Sydney and will be based for six nights at the Armidale Regency Hallmark Inn set in landscaped grounds with spacious units overlooking the city of Armidale and the New England Ranges.

There will be visits to wonderful historic gardens and houses including Stonehenge at Glen Innes, Ohio at Walcha, Abington at Bundarra, Eynsford in Armidale, and Salisbury Court at Uralla.

The New England region looks stunning at this time of year and will be in full autumn mode with warm blue days and crisp nights and masses of autumn colours which are among the finest in Australia.
