

AUSTRALIAN GARDEN HISTORY SOCIETY (SA)
2010 ANNUAL ESSAY PRIZE
'LOST GARDENS OF SOUTH AUSTRALIA'

The South Australian Branch of the Australian Garden History Society sponsors an annual award for an essay (including student papers) on the theme of lost gardens of Adelaide or South Australia. The Society is calling for submissions for the 2010 Prize.

Rules for the Prize

The award will be for $750.00; in addition the prize winner will receive a one-year membership to the Australian Garden History Society.

Applications for the prize are invited from all interested members of the public, who should be residents of South Australia. Student applicants are especially encouraged.

The Branch has selected a special topic for the 2010 Essay Prize – 'Lost Gardens of South Australia'. Essays should be about Adelaide or South Australian gardens which no longer exist, due to urban development, subdivision, or for other reasons.

It is recommended that the paper be between 2500 and 4000 words. There are no limitations on the size or format of the paper or the medium of presentation, but it is expected that the content will advance knowledge about the subject, and be presented in a manner that allows for replication.

The winner will be expected to present a talk on the award-winning paper at a meeting of the SA Branch of the AGHS. In addition, the prize-winning paper may be presented for consideration for publication in the AGHS journal ("Australian Garden History") or other suitable publication (eg. web-site of the AGHS).

The paper will be filed with the archives of the AGHS, SA Branch.

Submissions must be received by 27th September 2010, and the winner will be announced on the 15th October 2010.

If you wish to submit a paper for the 2010 Australian Garden History Society (SA) Annual Prize, please address correspondence to the Convenor of the selection panel (from whom additional information can be obtained) before the 27th September 2010. Please send submissions to:
