

Cremorne Walk

Agave attenuata and soft tree fern rosettes fill a gully below the public walkway.

Giant coastal honeysuckle tree shades a seat with a knockout Mosman Bay view.

A quaint garden gazebo in the grounds of 'The Laurels' alongside the public walk.

Reading the sign telling the story of the Lex & Ruby Graham Memorial Garden.

All photographs by Stuart Read.

Joan Lawrence takes us through a particularly 'Rousseau-esque' piece of tropical jungle along the way...