Possumwood at Robertson

Sunday 2 April 2017
12 noon to 4.30 pm

Robertson Inn (89 Hoddle St, Robertson) at 12 noon for lunch with talks by Howard Tanner and Myles Baldwin, followed by a private tour of Possumwood.

Howard Tanner, curator of the exhibition Planting Dreams: Grand Garden Designs, at the State Library of NSW until Easter Monday, will join us over lunch at Robertson Inn and discuss “Contemporary Gardens in NSW – an anecdotal talk including the realities of surveying gardens and the idiosyncrasies of curating an exhibition”.

Howard Tanner AM LFRAIA is an architect, award winner, writer, editor, teacher, mentor, a former president of the Royal Australian Institute of Architects and a former chairman of the Australian Garden History Society. He was recognised as a Member of the Order of Australia in 2013 for significant service to architecture, and to heritage conservation.

Myles Baldwin is a horticulturalist, landscape designer, award winner, writer and curator.

In Rural Australian Gardens, Myles describes how “in the misty hills of Robertson in the Southern Highlands, he designed a modern rendition of a walled perennial garden, with a twist”.

After lunch at Robertson Inn, Myles will introduce Possumwood, and then take AGHS members and their guests on a private tour of the property.

Logistics: This is a self-drive event. Parking is available at Robertson Inn, arrive at Robertson Inn at 12 noon, the event will conclude at Possumwood at 4.30 pm.

Cost: $40.00 per AGHS member, $45.00 per guest, including a two course lunch, bar own account. Please advise any dietary constraints when booking.
